OR

Make a précis of the passage and suggest a suitable title to it.

Harland Sanders was born in the USA in 1890s but his childhood wasn't a happy one. His father died when he was only six. So, his mother needed to find a job. She went to work in a shirt factory and Harland stayed at home to look after his younger brother and sister. That was when he first learned to cook. He left home when he was twelve and worked on a nearby farm. After that he had a lot of different jobs and in 1950 he became a service station manager in Corbin Kentucky. He started cooking meals for hungry travellers who stopped at the service station and soon people came only for the food. Harland moved to 142 seat restaurant across the street. Where he could serve all his customers. Over the next nine years he developed the secret chicken recipe that made him famous. In the early 1950s he closed the restaurant and decided to sell his recipe to other business. The first official Kentucky fried chicken restaurant didn't open until August 1952---- by 1964 there were more than 600 KFCs in North America. That year Sanders sold the company for $ 2 million, but he continued to work as KFC's public spokesman and visited restaurants all over the world. He travelled every year until he died in 1980 aged 90. There are now KFC restaurants in more than 80 countries and they sell 2.5 billion chicken dinners every year and the recipe is still a secret.
