3. Translate Urdu into English OR rewrite in simple English any TWO of the following paragraphs:

(i) Since the belief was threatening their dominance in the society, the Pagan Arabs started to mount pressure on the Rasool ﷺ and his followers. They wanted them to renounce their cause and take to idol-worshipping. On one occasion, they sent a delegation to the Rasool's ﷺ kind and caring uncle, Abu Talib. They told him to restrain the Rasool ﷺ from preaching Allah Almighty's message, or face their enmity.

(ii) The ideology of Pakistan was based on the fundamental principle that the Muslims are an independent nation. Any attempt to merge their national and political identity will be strongly resisted. Quaid-e-Azam was a man of strong faith and belief. He firmly believed that the new emerging state of Pakistan based on Islamic principles would reform the society as a whole.

(iii) I was upset. The advice I have been given did not seem right. I knew that she had suffered from major changes, but she needed to be given a chance. An inner voice somewhere within me spoke, "Try once for her."

7. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions given at the end:
We see a kind of milk in tins. It is powdered milk. All the water in this milk has evaporated. When fresh milk stays in a dish for a little time, the thick part of the milk comes to the top. It is the cream of the milk. From this cream people make butter. If milk with the cream on it is made into powder, it is called 'Full Cream Milk Powder'. When something floating is taken off the top of a liquid we say it is skimmed. When the cream is skimmed from the milk, the thin milk that stays is called 'Skim Milk'. Skim milk is a good milk but it has no fat in it. It is not good for very young babies.

- Questions:
- Is the milk in tins powdered or liquid?
 - What becomes of the water in the milk?
 - What comes to the top of the fresh milk when it stays for a little time in a dish?
 - What does the thick part of the milk have in it?
 - What do people make from cream?
