7 Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions given at the end: 10

The Indian National Congress was founded in 1885 by a liberal English man Mr. A. O. Hume. He had joined the Indian Civil Service in 1849 and retired from service after shouldering different responsibilities. He had been watching the ugly law and order situation in the country. He was of the opinion that the high-handed rule of the Britishers was paving way for any unexpected outburst of violence. His plan was to put a safety valve to minimize the mounting sentiments against the British rule. It was meant to provide an outlet which could ventilate the revolutionary spirit. Mr. Hume had put his plan before Lord Duffrin.

Questions:

- Who founded the Indian National Congress?
- Who was Mr. A.O. Hume?
- Why did Hume think of founding this political organization?
- When was the Indian National Congress founded?
- With whom did he discuss his plan?
